

Association for the Study of Connecticut History

Call for Submissions: Fall 2019

Date: November 2, 2019

Location: Central Connecticut State University

The Association for the Study of Connecticut History is seeking submissions for its fall 2019 conference: Suffrage and the History of Women's Rights in Connecticut. In the spirit of the centennial of women's suffrage, ASCH invites proposals for papers, workshops, and panels pertaining to women's rights campaigns, their outcomes, and other topics related to women's quest for equality in Connecticut.

Proposals of no more than 250 words must be submitted along with a one-page curriculum vitae by September 15, 2019. Proposals are welcome from all students of Connecticut history, including scholars, graduate students, K-12 educators, museum professionals, and members of local history organizations.

Proposals chosen for presentation on November 2 will be posted on a special conference website, and selected presenters will be invited to participate in an accompanying webinar series titled "The Suffrage Movement and Women's Rights in Connecticut."

Proposals should be 250 words or less and include a one page curriculum vitae. All files should be attached to the proposal form (see link below).
